

Dear Educators,

I am very happy to share an initiative to minimize the phobia of English language. Please see the attached list of “common English sentences” that are the part of day to day conversation in a school. It will be highly appreciable if we teach some of these sentences to our students and motivate them to speak. Our small encouragement will definitely cut down their hesitation.

Let’s do it together. Be a change maker in society.

Please send your feedback/ suggestions.
